Words of Wisdom

In the Constitution Ineffabilis Deus (1854) Pope Pius IX pronounced and defined that the Blessed Virgin Mary "in the first instance of her conception, by a singular privilege and grace granted by God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of the human race, was preserved exempt from all stain of original sin." Mary was conceived in the normal physical way as we were but, unlike us, she was free from the Sin of Adam from her beginning. We were baptized to free us from Original Sin and, thus, we should respond to God just as Mary did: "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." (LK 1:38)

You Have Questions; We Have Answers

It's true, our Church marches to its own calendar. For most people, the new year doesn't begin until January first but we celebrate the new year, Advent, today. Now it's a "liturgical" year so don't get all misty and start singing "Auld Lang Syne" yet. Things change with every new year. This year, the first Sunday of Advent brought us a new Missal and you've already noticed some of the changes. Also, every year gives us different readings – Sunday readings repeat every 3 years and weekday readings repeat every 2 years. Advent is the season for us to further prepare our hearts to receive Jesus and to reflect on His great gift to us.

The traditional Advent Lessons and Carols service in the Chapel of St. Gregory the Great at the Athenaeum of Ohio will be held at 7:30 PM, Wednesday, December 7. The performance includes chants with hand bells, traditional and new Advent carols, beautiful Marian motets, and scripture lessons read by members of the faculty. If this program doesn't double your spiritual esteem, we would be shocked.
