Words of Wisdom

This coming Monday is Memorial Day. Originally called "Decoration Day," its purpose was to honor soldiers who died in the Civil War by placing flowers on their graves. After World War I, the honor was extended to Americans who died fighting in any war. Memorial Day, like many customs, has diminished from its original intent and many soldiers' graves go unnoticed and neglected. In the United States, we are free to pray as we like because these brave, unselfish men and women paid the ultimate price for our freedom. It only makes sense, then, to pray for them that they may rest in eternal peace with God in heaven. We at St. Jerome's will pray for them at Mass on Monday, May 30th, at 9:30 AM. Please think about joining us.

New Church Doors Update

The new doors were delivered several months ago. However, in order to install and paint them properly, several days of nice, warm, dry weather is necessary. As you are well aware, Mother Nature has not cooperated with us. We continue to watch the long-range forecasts and as soon as we can we will complete the doors project. We appreciate your patience and your prayers!

Congratulations

Our own Brother Julian Lane, who has been a Brother of the Poor of St. Francis for 60 years, was recently honored by the Monsignor Gerdes Council of Knights of Columbus as the "Religious of the Year." He will be honored with a plaque at the Sunday Mass.

FR, PHILIP WAS A STAR IN THE GOSPEL
LAST WEEK, + AGAIN IN ACTS TODAY.
THOMAS MUST FEEL
LEFT OUT!

PHILIP IN THE GOSPEL
IS PHILIP THE APOSTLE. PHILIP IN ACTS IS PHILIP THE DEACON.

More
Kudos!

Congratulations also to all our graduating students! Our prayers and best wishes go out to you for your future success and happiness. And for our young people who were recently confirmed, we thank God for you and your families.

You Have Questions; We Have Answers: The second commandment is You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain. We immediately think of cursing and blaspheming and, of course, any use of God's name inappropriately is wrong. The Church teaches us, however, that this commandment asks even more of us.

We must ask ourselves if we have ever failed to keep vows or promises that we have made to God? Or spoken about the Faith, the Church, the saints, or sacred things with irreverence, hatred or defiance? Have we ever belittled others in our speech or behaved disrespectfully in Church or misused places or things set apart for the worship of God? Have we ever committed perjury or blamed God for our failings?

Once again, through her teachings, our Church helps us to understand and obey God's laws which are not to be lightly disregarded. We should continually seek more knowledge about God and His Church.

Thank you! We have had three people call and volunteer to minister at the five o'clock Mass. We still have only four Altar Servers and we are working them pretty hard. Please call us at the office to volunteer to be a server, Communion minister, lector, or usher at our 5 PM Mass. You'll really love to do it!

Cross the Bridge for Life. On Sunday, June 5th, we can walk across the Purple People Bridge to help celebrate the sanctity of life. The walk begins at 2 PM at the World Peace Bell Center (421 Monmouth St. in Newport) with the ringing of the bell. T-shirts are available and there is a complimentary picnic following the walk. There will be free face painting, balloons, and clowns. Visit crossthebridgeforlife.com for more information.

Next Friday is a "First Friday" (of the month) and we always celebrate Mass at 7:30 PM on First Fridays. On other Fridays we almost always celebrate a Mass at 10 AM. It is usually a small, intimate gathering and a great way to start a weekend. We'd love to have you join us – come in the back door.

The Feast of the Ascension of our Lord into heaven occurs on the fortieth day after Easter (see Luke 24:51 and Acts 1:6-12) which is always the sixth Thursday of Easter – this year, June 2nd. It is a Holy Day of Obligation in much of the world but in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati the celebration was transferred to the weekend after, which is next weekend. Please plan to join us for Mass June 4th or 5th as we celebrate this very special moment in the life of the Church.

Fr. Bob Keller says that his cupboards are bare. If you can, please put non-perishable food items in the barrel marked "St. Vincent DePaul" inside the back porch of the church.
