The Knights of Columbus thank you for your donations to their “Measure Up” campaign for handicapped children. Your generosity will benefit special needs children who are among the “least ones” Jesus tells us about in Matthew 25.

St. Vincent DePaul also wishes to convey their deep gratitude for your wonderful response to their 5th Sunday collection last weekend. As you know, this money is used to help people in our own neighborhoods who have found themselves in dire straits. Thank You!

Words of Wisdom

New evangelization means finding the most effective ways to proclaim the Gospel to a world that is either too distracted or too blind to see the divine, Pope Benedict XVI said. Today's spiritual crisis is marked by people excluding God from their lives, "generalized indifference" toward Christianity and stringently pushing faith from the public to the private sphere, he said. The church will have to "find ways to make the proclamation of salvation more effective," he told members of the Pontifical Council for Promoting New Evangelization. The newly created council, headed by Archbishop Rino Fisichella, met for its first plenary assembly May 30 to June 1. Pope Benedict, who established the new council, said he hoped the members would help outline a plan for the whole church in regards to the urgent task of evangelization.

The members of St. Jerome's Rosary Altar Society met last Thursday at Royal Oaks Country Club. They had a nice meal and great fellowship and some went home with really nice prizes. If you missed this event, you missed it! But there's always next year!

Doors Update: The new doors are installed – they will be painted the same color as the old ones during the coming week.

Father Joseph R. Binzer, whose appointment as auxiliary bishop of Cincinnati by Pope Benedict XVI was announced on April 6, will be ordained a bishop in a Mass that begins at 2 p.m. Thursday, June 9, at the Cathedral of St. Peter in Chains, downtown Cincinnati. Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr will be the consecrator. Archbishop emeritus Daniel E. Pilarczyk, and Bishop R. Daniel Conlon of Steubenville, will be co-consecrators. Sixteen bishops will attend, along with representatives of the 214 parishes of the Archdiocese.

Please pray for our new bishop.

Congratulations to our new graduates and to our newly confirmed young people. You are a real source of joy for the Lord and for us. Our prayers are with you as you journey forth in the world. Thank you for being a part of our lives.

You Have Questions; We Have Answers: The third commandment is Remember to keep holy the Sabbath Day. Some of us old-timers remember “blue laws” which, back in the day, were designed to help us keep Sundays as days of rest. Now, we can conduct almost any kind of business on Sunday, the same as a weekday. The Church asks us for only one hour of our time on Sunday to pray and, most importantly, receive the Sacrament of Communion. Beyond that, she asks that we not labor, or cause others to labor, unnecessarily, on the Lord’s Day. It does not seem too difficult to obey God’s third commandment.

Next Sunday is Pentecost Sunday – the day when we celebrate Jesus’ gift of the “Paraclete” who is with us always. On the fiftieth day after the resurrection of Jesus, the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles: “When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. And they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.” (Acts 2:1-4). Wear RED to remind you of the flames.
